

Terms of use and reproduction regulations

- (1) All charges are in Euro, to be paid in advance. All bank charges to be borne by the customer. We do not accept cheques.
- (2) There is no claim to the reproduction of our image material. However, we do give our best to provide the requested images – given all the technical, conservatory and copy right requirements.
- (3) For each publication of our image material you need the permission of Aachen Cathedral Treasury. The reproduction permit is valid for individual one-time use with concrete purpose. If you wish to publish our material in an interlinked document or re-use the image, it is compulsory to request another reproduction permit.
- (4) Any transfer of the image material or the rights of use to third parties is prohibited. Reproduction rights are not transferable to another person/ organization.
- (5) The publication permission expires after two years automatically.
- (6) The caption must appear directly under the reproduction, on the page facing, on the reverse, in a list of illustrations, and/ or in an appendix. The credit line will include all of the information listed with each text as described in the permission agreement.
- (7) You may not modify the authorized image(s). Each image must be reproduced in its entirety without cropping, bleeding, alteration, splitting, or other modification. If a detail is shown, the caption must include the word „detail“.
- (8) Digital images must be destroyed upon the publication of the project, latest one month after the publication.
- (9) From each publication with our graphic material you are expected to send one specimen-copy free of charge. You may send the copy in PDF format via e-mail.
- (10) In case your publication can be of interest as an advertisement for Aachen Cathedral Treasury we might not charge for reproduction rights.
- (11) Charges for new photographs are to be borne by the customer.

The place of jurisdiction is Aachen. German law applies to deliveries abroad.

Please allow 2-3 weeks for us to process your request.